Big turnout for Axe Vale Festival

VISITOR numbers at Axe Vale Festival "exceeded all expectations". The 23rd festival was held in scorching conditions on Saturday and Sunday, but the heat did not seem to scare visitors away.

The exact attendance figure and how much was raised for good causes are not yet known, but festival treasurer Bee Painton said: "Because our tickets are sold through many outlets, we will not know the exact sum we have raised for some days – but I can tell you that visitor numbers have exceeded all expectations."

Festival chairman Tony Benger added: "It wasn't too hot for people to come out, but they left a little earlier. I think the ice cream sellers have done very well."

The organising team had introduced a new layout and made changes to the car park.

Mr Benger said: "People just love the new layout. I was a bit nervous, but it was very well-received. So thanks to showground organiser Simon Hodges."

"The new entrance made parking easier, and less volunteers were required as a result."

Already looking forward to next year, Mrs Painton added: "The committee is buzzing with enthusiasm and ideas."

"While maintaining the popular traditions, we will be bringing you lots of new things to enjoy next year."

Chief reporter | anders@viewnews.co.uk

A range of local businesses support the festival, having stands at the showground.

Ian McMurtry of Thomas Westcott Chartered Accountants said: "We enjoy being part of the community and supporting a local event."

Axminster's largest employer, Axminster Tools & Machinery, put on a series of craft demonstrations.

MD Alan Styles said: "Axminster Tools & Machinery really likes to connect and engage with its local community and customers."

"We are a family business and have many employees living in Axe Valley, who support Axe Vale Festival either by attending or by getting involved."

"In addition, we are fortunate enough to have the Skill Centre which puts on a range of wood-working, craft and engineering courses."

"This expertise can be demonstrated and encouraged as a way of perpetuating traditional and essential skills, and fits in well with the ethos of the festival."

"Axe Vale Festival has a good feel to it and, with fine weather, it showcases Axminster at its very best and is a lovely day out for family and friends."

■ WESTERN Counties Heavy Horse Society made sure visitors could meet the animals at last weekend's Axe Vale Festival

■ THE Women's Section of the Axminster branch of the Royal British Legion celebrated the organisation's 90th anniversary with a parade and service at The Minster.

The parade was led by the Mayor of Axminster, Councillor Jeremy Walden and attended by standard bearers from visiting branches.

NEWS FROM AROUND PULMAN'S COUNTRY... East Devon & South Somerset Villagers call for halt on 'industrialisation'

RESIDENTS in Hawkchurch are calling for an immediate stop to the 'industrialisation' of the village.

Hawkchurch has been inundated with plans for solar farms, diesel generators and an 'energy barn' over the past few years and residents are saying it's time to stop preying on the village.

Hawkchurch Action Group member David

Huggins explained why residents are so angry about the latest diesel powered generator application in the village.

Mr Huggins said: "It is not because we are against renewable energy. We understand the importance of that and we also understand the complications of intermittent supply."

"But these plants are not in the least bit green. How is it that UK energy policy has resulted in the most polluting, inefficient and expensive form of generation as back-up and then have them put directly into the rural countryside?"

"And why is it fair that the parish of Hawkchurch, which sits just outside the Dorset AONB, should have to suffer such a concentration of industrial facilities?"

In recent years, Hawkchurch has become a magnet for solar parks, and now back-up supply units, due to the capacity at the local substation and availability of cheap agricultural land.

Mr Huggins described this as 'deeply unfair'.

The area around Hawkchurch now has some 100 acres of solar parks. There are an additional 25 acres just across the border into Dorset and 25 acres more just outside the parish near Raymonds Hill.

Mr Huggins added: "This many solar parks is the highest concentration in Devon. Thankfully, we had one major success in the rejection of a large park at Saborow [Thorncombe] in 2016, which was to be situated in an area visible from the AONB."

Last year, an application for a 20MW gas STOR facility at Stonebarrow close to the location of the proposed diesel facility was withdrawn following strong local objection, including from Lyme Regis action group Turn Lyme Green, who have once again encouraged their supporters to get involved and protest the planning application.

Mr Huggins added: "Without doubt, all of this activity will have a massive cumulative effect on the beauty and tranquillity of the rural landscape around Hawkchurch."

"The Hawkchurch parish is close to the Dorset AONB and Jurassic Coast World Heritage Site and the site of proposed diesel generators is less than a mile from the Site of Special Scientific Interest encompassing Lamberts Castle."

"This cannot be the right place to site an ever increasing set of industrial plants. The industrialisation of the countryside really must stop!"

This evening, June (20th), the CEO of Plutus Powergen will be giving a presentation at Hawkchurch Village Hall to Parish Councillors.

Mr Huggins finished: "The village will be there in strength to protest. The gas station application last year received over 350 objections on the EDDC website. Local people are up in arms."

Comments can be sent to the East Devon District Council website and the deadline for comments is Friday, June 23rd.

Historic England starts pasty row

LEADING charity Historic England has sparked a fresh baked row after claiming the Cornish pasty was invented – in DEVON.

Spokesman Celia Richardson angered the Cornish community by comments she made during a new campaign launch last week.

She was intending to highlight the things invented and pioneered in England which people may not have known about.

Celia referenced research by Exeter historian Dr Todd Gray who discovered the earliest ever written mention of a pasty was in Devon from records dating back to 1509 and 1510.

He also claimed the earliest record of a Cornish pasty was in a Devon recipe in 1746.

But some experts hit back claiming cave drawings have been found in Cornwall showing pasties – and dating back to 8,000BC.

That would be some 2,000 years before the invention of flour and 9,500 years before potatoes arrived in Europe.

Celia Richardson said: "Debate and argument are the meat and potatoes of history."

"We want to know which parts of England people think have changed the world."

"This was always going to bring out the country's competitive spirits – and nothing defines local character like food."

"We didn't mean to cause a stir."

Devon PCC says civilian gun owners could help fight back in terror attack

DEVON and Cornwall Police and Crime Commissioner Alison Hernandez has once again found herself in hot water after suggesting that she would consider letting gun owners act during a terror attack.

During a radio phone-in, Ms Hernandez said she would "really be interested" in the idea.

Her remarks were quickly shot down by the Deputy Chief Constable Paul Netherton who said it was a "definitely an emphatic 'no'" that people should be arming themselves against such a threat.

The force said armed civilians would risk being shot by officers.

Conservative PCC Ms Hernandez has since said her comments on the radio phone in were "misinterpreted".

The chair of the Police Federation of England and Wales, Steve White, said the idea was "a recipe for disaster" and that "vigilantism" had no place in "the fight against terrorism".

Ms Hernandez's comments were made as she responded to a caller who said she was an "ex-registered firearms dealer" and gun-owner living in Bude.

She asked: "If there should ever be a terrorist attack close to the town centre... what happens if people like I and others try to defend themselves using those guns?"

Ms Hernandez replied: "This could be some of our solution..." before being interrupted by presenter Laurence Reed, challenging her on whether she was advocating vigilantes.

She responded: "I'm just saying... let's officially have a look at that and see what would be the implications of it."

"We work with businesses to keep our communities safe.

"I'd really be interested in exploring that with the chief constable."

"If your community was coming under attack, people would do all sorts of things to try to save their community without even thinking."

Local councils respond to Grenfell Tower fire

FOLLOWING the shocking fire at Grenfell Tower in London last week, East Devon District Council has said that they are reviewing their fire safety arrangements for the properties they own.

The high rise block of flats caught fire on Wednesday (June 14th), and the inferno is thought to have claimed the lives of more than 79 people, with firefighters working tirelessly for days to put out the fire and search for any survivors.

East Devon District Council does not own any high rise properties similar to Grenfell Tower but has said, that like any responsible landlords, they are reviewing their fire safety arrangements.

A spokesperson for EDDC said: "We are deeply saddened and shocked over the terrible tower block fire disaster in London.

"This dreadful disaster is a reminder that when it comes to fire risk, we need to remain constantly vigilant and to never become complacent, so we are constantly checking premises and fire evacuation procedures."

"Compliance with all safety requirements is a priority for us as a landlord, including fire safety, and we have Fire Risk Assessments (FRAs) and procedures in place to keep tenants safe."

"We have a programme of undertaking FRAs, identifying any works needed and undertaking those, as well as ensuring that tenants know what safety procedures to follow in the event of a fire."

"We review our Fire Risk Assessments annually and our staff are checking the fire escapes of our flats monthly."

"While we have no tower blocks in our portfolio, we do have flats, community centres and communal stairs that require proper fire protection, signage, emergency lighting and fire alarms."

"Our zero tolerance approach to possessions and obstructions in communal areas has sometimes been controversial with tenants, but recent events show that this element of our fire precaution work needs to be rigorously enforced."

"We provide all our homes with smoke alarms, carbon monoxide detectors and in many properties heat detectors, and regularly check that these are operating effectively."

East Devon District Council's Portfolio Holder for Sustainable Homes and Communities, Councillor Jill Elson, said: "We were saddened by the recent tragic fire in London and like all responsible landlords we are reviewing our fire safety arrangements to ensure that our tenants remain safe in their homes."

"We treat fire safety as a priority and are constantly looking at how we can improve fire safety in our properties. We work closely with the Fire Service and value their advice and support. I am sure that there will be lessons for all landlords to learn following the London fire."

Pulman's View contacted South Somerset District Council who confirmed that while they do not own any housing stock within the district, they do undertake housing inspections of properties where residents have expressed concerns over the living standards of the property, which falls under the remit of the district's Housing Standards Team.

Extra money for Yeovil A&E dept

SOUTH Somerset MP Marcus Fysh has welcomed the announcement of further money from the Government's £100 million A&E fund being allocated to hospitals across the country, including Yeovil District Hospital.

YDH will receive £225,000, meaning the hospital will be able to prepare for winter early and be properly equipped to give the best care.

That includes patients being assessed by a clinician when they arrive in A&E so they can access the best and most appropriate care for their needs.

It will also mean that hospitals will be able to build GP practices within the A&E where those with less urgent needs can receive treatment, helping to alleviate pressure.

Mr Fysh commented: "With increased demand our A&Es need some additional help and I'm delighted we are in line for this funding which will help Yeovil District Hospital to prepare well in advance for winter."

"This investment will speed up the way hospitals across the country assess and see patients so they can get the most appropriate and best quality medical care for their needs."

Hayley takes on Machu Picchu trek for Amnesty International AXMINSTER resident Hayley Jones completed a four-day trek at altitude to arrive at Machu Picchu, Peru, on May 24th.

She tackled the challenge to raise money for Amnesty International UK and was honoured to be trekking with the director of Amnesty International UK Kate Allen and the executive director of Amnesty International Ireland Colm O'Gorman.

She has raised £870 so far, which will be used to protect and support human rights.

The team of 15 has raised a combined total of over £40,000.

During the trip, the team met with Amnesty International Peru, who delivered presentations on their work.

Their major campaigns are protecting the rights of local people who are exploited by mining companies and helping victims of an enforced sterilisation programme in the 1990s to gain recognition and compensation.

Hayley said: "Learning how grassroots human rights campaigns have gained respect and awareness through their association with Amnesty makes me proud to support such a worthwhile course. It makes a real difference to people's lives."

Hayley, who blogs on mental health at www.resurfacingandrewriting.com and is the volunteer writing and communications officer at local mental health charity The Project, had extra motivation to complete the challenge: she wants to show people with mental health problems that they can achieve their goals.

She said: "I have anxiety, depression and borderline personality disorder, and while I struggle with my mental health on a day to day basis, I believe people who have mental illnesses can pursue their dreams and have a lot to contribute to society."

"Preparing for and participating in the challenge was incredibly tough, but my determination – or, as some may say, stubbornness – got me through. I hope my achievement inspires other people with mental health problems."

Anders Larsson
Chief reporter

If you would like to support Hayley by donating to Amnesty International UK, please visit www.justgiving.com/fundraising/HayleyNJones

Pam says goodbye to Honiton Primary

■ HONITON stalwart Pam Bailey has finally called time on her 42 years of service to the children of Honiton Primary School. Pam (centre) has worked at the school as a lunchtime supervisor for more than 40 years and has helped look after nearly three generations of Honiton children. She said: "I don't remember everyone I've worked with, only the naughty ones. But some of the children now, I do remember when their parents were here."

Lodge boost for children's hospice

MEMBERS of Ye Rattenbury Lodge RAOB were delighted to present a cheque of £1,600 to Children's Hospice South West.

The lodge's annual charity presentation evening was held on May 31st at The Smugglers Kitchen in Beer.

Lodge secretary Basil Herbert said: "It was with great pleasure a cheque was presented to Pauline Leach, (chairman) by Brother Vic Petty (Provincial Grand Primo for the Exeter Province RAOB) to this very deserving organisation.

The lodge, located at The Scout Hall, Clapp's Lane, Beer, holds a meeting every Monday between 8pm-10pm.

Established in 1821, the order is a philanthropic organisation helping raise funds for charity and local good causes.

New members are always welcome. For an entertaining evening once a week, please contact Mr Herbert on 07475 477241.

Kestrel chicks on show

TWO recently-installed kestrel boxes at Seaton Wetlands have already been occupied by breeding kestrels.

Live up-close footage of the stunning birds of prey, taken via a nest video camera, can be seen at the Discovery Hut in the centre of Seaton Wetlands.

Members of the public are encouraged by East Devon District Council (EDDC) to come and watch as the special scenes unfold.

The Discovery Hut, which is usually manned by volunteers from 10am to 4pm, Saturdays to Mondays, has extended its opening hours to include 11am to 1pm, Tuesdays to Thursdays, until the end of June, allowing more visitors to watch "these magical scenes".

During these hours staff or volunteers will be available to tell visitors more about the kestrels and will also serve hot drinks and biscuits.

Anders Larsson

Chief reporter | anders@viewnews.co.uk

EDDC Countryside Nature Reserve Manager James Chubb said: "The female kestrel has been sitting on five eggs and we are so excited to report that these have all now hatched.

"We have been treated to some amazing views of the chicks hatching as well as regular feeding.

"We hope that lots of visitors will come and see the new chicks and make the most of the extended opening hours in the Discovery Hut."

Quad bikers 4 ELF charity

QUADS4DEVON, a group of quadbike riders who raise cash for cancer charities, has collected £2,000 for the Exeter Leukaemia Fund (ELF) by travelling more than 500 miles throughout Devon in a week promoting awareness of the charity.

ELF, with its main support centre based at the RD&E Exeter, provides much needed support for leukaemia sufferers and their relatives through counselling, transport and guidance all over the South West.

Founder Dean Hayward's mother, Jennifer Ann Head, who died in May 2016, had first-hand knowledge of the importance of ELF and how they benefit so many people and their families.

Lead rider Dean Hayward (a/k/a Quads4devon), his wife Jayne Hayward (admin) from Crediton, John Beaton (a/k/a Road Hawk) from Axminster and support driver Paul Warren from Seaton all took part.

A pre-ride 'Meet the Riders' event at the Spar Garage in Lapford raised £261 on May 12th, before their journey began the following day from The Farmers' Union in Exeter.

At The Hook & Parrot in Seaton, they gave locals a ride up and down the seafront on the quads for a small donation raising £140.

Their journey then took them from East Devon, north to Tiverton, Barnstaple, stopping at The Old Station House (Blackmoor Gate) who had raised more than £400 with their monthly profits from bingos and Easter egg hunts... and dried off the biker's clothes following a particularly wet day.

Fed and watered the group followed the beautiful North

Devon coastline before heading through Holsworthy, Tavistock then into Dartmoor soaked again and not looking forward to another sleepless night in the tent, Moorcote Country Guest House in Moretonhampstead put the guys up at short notice... and dried off the bikers' gear once more.

Clean, dry gear gave the group a real surge on to the last couple of legs through to South Hams, Dartmouth, Brixham, Torbay and back up towards the final stop - The Smugglers Inn, Dawlish.

Thankful for a safe trip and a decent shower, Quads4 Devon visited the ELF centre at the Royal Devon & Exeter Hospital on May 27th to hand-over the £2,020.20 raised so far to ELF co-ordinator Natalie Searle (pictured below).

The group would like to thank all those who helped them along the route.

Policeman passes on gift to Pippins

PIPPINS Community Centre in Axminster has received a donation of £100 thanks to a local resident and the police. Axminster Sergeant Mat Helm recently assisted a woman in Axminster who was stranded.

The woman gave Sgt Helm £100 for his efforts, but police officers are unable to accept financial gifts, so Sgt Helm suggested the donation was made to the community centre.

The local resident thought it was a great idea and the donation was made to Little Pips Baby and Toddler Group.

Sgt Helm said he was proud to see the money going to a really good local cause and wishes them well.

Little Pips is a baby and toddler group, led by Axe Valley Children's Centre in partnership with Axminster Churches Together, which takes place every Friday in term time from 1.30-3pm at Pippins, Lyme Road, Axminster.

The money will be spent on planting for the Shared Space Project at Pippins, and developing the space for people of all ages who enjoy their time at the community centre, which is now thriving and used every day of the week.

In other police news, Sgt Helm announced on Twitter last week that he will be leaving the East Devon beat to join the team of custody officers based in Exeter.

New arts centre set to open at academy

HAVING converted from school to academy status in April this year, the trustees and governors of Axe Valley Academy are inviting the community to join them to celebrate this milestone in the school's history.

Students at the academy began using their brand new arts centre at the beginning of the academic year and this grand opening event will provide visitors with the opportunity to come to see this fantastic new facility in action.

The official opening takes place this Thursday, June 22nd at 5pm and all members of the community are invited to attend. If you would like to come along, please contact Lucy Ford, PA to the headteacher, on 01297 32146.

DofE accreditation for Axe Valley

AXE Valley Academy in Axminster has earned its Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme Licensed Centre Certificate – meaning it can now offer students the opportunity to take part in the world's leading youth achievement award.

Axe Valley headteacher Steve Green was presented with the certificate at Buckingham Palace, in the presence of Their Royal Highnesses Prince Philip and Prince Edward.

A number of celebrity presenters were at the event and Mr Green was presented with his certificate by cookery writer and new Bake Off judge Prue Leith.

Dozens of students from Axe Valley Academy complete Duke of Edinburgh Awards every year.

An academy spokesperson said: "To complete an award, students must complete volunteering, physical and skills sections along with taking part in an expedition."

Mr Green added: "I am delighted that we can play our part in encouraging young people to take part in this fantastic award programme. "Having been part of the award scheme myself as a student, I know how valuable the experiences are and what a difference it can make to an individual's confidence whilst at the same time giving something back to the community.

Doctor runs through the pain

MARATHON CHALLENGE RAISES MORE THAN £700 FOR CHARITY

SEATON and District Hospital League of Friends is in line for a cash boost in excess of £700 after retired doctor Joe Pitt fought injury and illness to complete the London Marathon.

Dr Pitt is a seasoned long-distance runner but preparations for London Marathon were somewhat nightmarish, including septicaemia.

It was only after an early fitness test on the morning of the race that he decided to give it a go.

His finishing time was nowhere near what he aimed for, but he raised £712.67 for the League of Friends.

Struggling with a calf injury, he was limited to long brisk walks for much of February and March.

Then, when out on a training run just a week before the race, disaster struck. Dr Pitt became unwell and needed help to get home.

The cause was a heavily-infected foot, which had led to septicaemia.

Dr Pitt explained: "So I ended up consulting an old friend and ex-colleague, Dr Daniels, from the out-of-hours service, who immediately placed me on a very high dose of antibiotics.

"To tell you the truth, I thought that would be the end of it and obviously couldn't do any more training.

"By Friday, however, I did feel better so I travelled up and decided to do it literally in the morning."

The opening 13 miles went well and he was on course for a finishing time of about 4.45 until cramp set in.

He said: "In the end I did it in just over 5.33, which wasn't anywhere near what I wanted.

"But given the circumstances it was understandable – and I did it. It was an amazing occasion blessed with great crowds and good weather. So very memorable. I so want to thank the league for making it happen and I hope I helped swell their coffers with sponsor money.

"With all the awfulness affecting the hospital and everything, any funds are much-needed."

League of Friends manager Lycia Moore said: "It was back in May 2016 that Joe approached the league and asked if we would consider him as a runner for the London Marathon – he wanted to do something that was both a challenge and worthwhile.

"Seaton & District Hospital League of Friends would like to thank everyone who sponsored Joe to run the London Marathon, which amounted to £712.67 – so we are really pleased that he did manage to run in the end.

"The money raised is for the hospital and also our Seaton Friends Hospice-care@Home service."

If anyone would like to raise money for the league through a sponsored event, contact Lycia on 01297 20143.

She will be able to help with sponsorship forms, setting up a donation page online and provide any other help required.

ADVERTISER'S AUCTION

Rare car is the star lot

THE owners of Lyme Bay Auctions in Seaton are looking forward to their June sale when they will be auctioning a fabulous Lanchester LD10 vintage car.

The car was first registered in 1951 and is one of only 579 built with an aluminium coachbuilt body by 'Barker'.

The LD10 was the smallest post war car to be fitted with the self-changing gearbox and fluid fly-wheel. It was also the most expensive 10hp car available.

Managing Director Simon Watson said: "We are very excited to have been asked to auction this delightful car. What could be better than a spin in the English countryside in 'Lily the Lanchester'?"

Originally based in Birmingham, the Lanchester Motor Company was purchased by the BSA Group at the end of 1930, after which its cars were made by Daimler on their Coventry sites. Lanchester then became part of Jaguar Cars in 1960.

Simon continued: "The Lanchester reflects the huge variety of items that we are receiving for auction.

"Our monthly sales go from strength to strength, with an ever-increasing number of bidders, both online and in our salerooms, and we look forward to selling many more vintage cars in the future."

The auction estimate for the Lanchester is £4,600 to £5,000.

It will be part of Lyme Bay Auctions' General Sale on Monday, June 26th starting at 10am.

Lyme Bay Auctions holds monthly general sales of antiques, collectables, furniture, silver, gold, jewellery, ceramics, artwork, vintage items and household goods.

■ THE Lanchester LD10 will be auctioned on June 26th

Easter egg raffle raises funds for Hospiscare

■ HONITON Lions have donated £100 to Hospiscare after another successful Easter egg raffle in the town. The Easter egg draw is organised annually by the Lions Club of Honiton and District. The club wishes to extend a big thank you to all pubs, shops and businesses who hosted the eggs and everyone who bought a ticket and took part. President Brian Richards is pictured above handing over the cheque to Hospiscare volunteer Mary Balshaw at the charity's day hospice in Honiton.

Tesco boost for train station planters

■ STAFF at Honiton Tesco present a cheque for nearly £350 to the newly formed Friends of Honiton Station community group

FOLLOWING the successful installation of the planters at Honiton Railway Station in March, organised by Honiton town councillor Caroline Kolek and East Devon District Councillor Jenny Brown, funds have now been raised to continue the work.

Honiton Tesco have donated the money raised from the March book sales to Friends of Honiton Station.

Cllr Caroline Kolek thanked Tesco for their generous support and said the £344.47 will go towards adding more planters and creating a garden area at the town's railway station.

Cllr Kolek, having recently completed two terms as mayor, is now responsible for tourism.

The Friends of Honiton Station is open to anyone wishing to join, with their first meeting having taken place on June 15th

In Bloom volunteers get planting

OTTERY In Bloom has planted more than 500 plants across the town this month.

Otter In Bloom were assisted in their endeavours by the Ottery Guides who help each year to ensure that visitors and townsfolk alike can enjoy a colourful scene all summer.

In Bloom's Keith Spittlehouse said: "We are indebted to Otter Nurseries who will once again be putting their plant tubs on St Saviour's Bridge which they have done for more years than we can remember.

"More of the planters and tubs are again being sponsored by local organisations and businesses this year so look out for their logos as you admire the displays.

"There are one or two more stands not currently sponsored, so if any business or organisation wishes to cover the cost of plants in a stand this year please let us know."

There is a need for the plants to be watered during the summer, particularly if it is hot and dry.

It is only with the assistance of a number of organisations which help that Ottery in Bloom are able to maintain the displays.

If you can help with planting or watering, let Ottery In Bloom know. You can telephone Keith on 01404 812155 or contact the group through the town council or the TIC.

■ OTTERY Guides helped once again with planting flowers around the town

Beavers go undercover

■ OTTERY St Mary Beavers recently took part in a sleepover with a distinctly covert feeling.

For one night only the Scout centre was transferred into the I Spy Detective Agency, as the Beavers took on the roles of investigators.

After undergoing background checks and fingerprinting, the special agent Beavers were issued with their ID cards, codenames, magnifying glasses and disguises (pictured).

The Beavers were then tasked with cracking a series of codes and challenges and then solved the case of the missing sweets.

New play equipment opens at Membury

THE Membury Playing Field Committee finally opened the much awaited first phase of its new play equipment on June 9th, much to the delight of local children.

The ribbon cutting came after five years of campaigning and fundraising.

And who better to open the new equipment but the children themselves, as they all ran through the ribbon, before enjoying an ice lolly, and playing on the equipment.

None of this would have been possible without donations from: The Big Lottery fund, The Gibbons Family Trust, Lloyds Bank Community Fund or The Membury Merry Makers.

Funding was also made available from Axminster Town Council, and Membury Parish Council.

Not forgetting the formidable committee, who threw themselves into the challenge of making an amazing play space for the village.

■ CHILDREN running through the ribbon at the opening

■ THE children on the new fort with their ice lollies

■ THE children from the reception and pre-school classes at Shute Primary School have been very busy and recently made a scarecrow for Furzeleigh Down Farm Open Day. The pupils have also been learning about mini-beasts, so decided to make a giant spider. The children worked together combining a lot of different materials and used books to find out more facts about spiders.

BRO

■ COLYFORD: At their meeting at the beginning of June, the ladies of Colyford WI sat enthralled as Chinese brush artist, Lisa Class, deftly produced two beautiful pictures with just a few strokes of her brushes.

During the demonstration she explained considerations such as the preparation of the ink, the different types of animal hair used for the brushes, the importance of 'loading' the brush correctly, the techniques for using the brush and the careful preparation required for mounting the final painting... fascinating.

Over tea members advised their choices for 'Ladies Who Lunch' later in the month. During the meeting, a potential outing was proposed for September and consideration was given to the birthday meeting in July and the cream tea in August.

At the next meeting, on July 5th, the group will celebrate its 42nd birthday.

For more information contact Elizabeth Harding on 01297 624250.

New home for Axminster Probus Club

■ AXMINSTER PROBUS: June saw the Axminster and District Probus Club move to its new venue, Cricket St Thomas Golf Club, for its regular meeting.

Members appreciated the facilities and the excellent menu.

Speaking to them was Mrs Valerie Sutherland whose talk was entitled 'Old Dog, New Tricks', an account of her working life illustrated by monologues and stories. Val had trained as an actor, with the inevitable periods of work and periods of unemployment.

One of her tutors was Joyce Grenfell which inspired her to write monologues of her own, some of which she recounted to the great amusement of her audience.

With unemployment exceeding work, she took the decision to retrain as a teacher, a profession she followed for 15 years, caring for seven to 11-year-olds in Birmingham – no easy task!

Her experiences lead to a third avenue – therapeutic counselling – helping those less fortunate to cope with their problems, but leading her to the conclusion that many people cannot accept responsibility for their own actions.

To complete her career, Val has returned to her roots and now makes a living as an actor, speaker and storyteller, which is how she came to be at the Probus meeting!

The speaker at next month's meeting will be Charlie Palmer, who will be speaking on 'Dowsing' on July 4th.

The Axminster and District Probus Club for retired and semi-retired business and professional men meets at Cricket St Thomas Golf Club on the A30 east of Chard (TA20 4DG) on the first Tuesday of each month.

Prospective members are always welcome. For further information ring 01460 220528. PAUL MARTIN

Scams and frauds the subject at Axminster Phoenix Club

■ AXMINSTER PHOENIX: Scams and frauds were the topic of guest speaker Cllr Paul Hayward at a recent meeting of Axminster Phoenix Ladies Club.

A former employee in Natwest's fraud office in the 1980s, Paul informed members how criminals are getting more and more clever at persuading people to part with their money.

Most of us know about doorstep distraction thieves and rogue traders but there are also bogus charity traders who persuade people to part with their money.

These people often carry fake ID to fool the public into believing they are genuine.

Junk mail postal scams are becoming more prevalent with the public ringing high premium telephone numbers – the ones to avoid start with the prefixes 090 and 079 – with the promise of a free prize, however the cost of phoning these numbers is more than the prize itself.

Other premium numbers to avoid are 070 and 026.

Some numbers can run up a bill of £68 as charges can be as much as £6.99 a minute.

Bogus debt recovery is another issue – genuine bailiffs have to go through set process in court, so be aware.

Pension investments for the over 65s is another scam which can relieve people of their hard-earned pensions.

Telephone fraud has become a serious problem with fraudsters claiming to be bank officials and asking for PIN numbers; Paul stressed the point, banks do not ask for this information over the phone, so do not give it.

If in doubt, put the telephone down and ring your bank.

Fraudsters can keep the line open for two minutes and intercept your call so make yourself a cup of tea and then ring!

Online scams can be a problem so do not open unsolicited emails.

A few of us have received emails asking for help supposedly from a friend who has been stranded abroad with no money to get home.

Do not be fooled. Do not give your name, date of birth online or over the phone; this could be another scam and not genuine.

Always report problems to the police and remember the old adage, if it is too good to be true, then it probably is.

Our gratitude to Paul for providing both an entertaining and informative talk and for his offer to provide a comprehensive information list to our members.

The chairman confirmed that 36 people have booked for the coach trip to Bournemouth on the July 12th and also mentioned there will be a cream tea on Friday, June 23rd from 2.30pm to 4.30pm.

The cost is £3.50 per head and in addition to scones, homemade cakes will also be on offer.

This is one of our fund-raising events during the year to raise money for a local project. As reported last month, the TIC were the recipients for 2016.

BASED in Kilmington, Sasha Mitchell offers voice and confidence coaching, helping people put across their ideas and make sure they are heard in the work place.

Originally from North West London, her family moved regularly between the city and the Yorkshire Dales as her father was a writer and her mother an actor.

She moved to East Devon to be with her partner, Charlie, an environmental and planning solicitor and she has a 19-year-old daughter, Lola, who is studying in London.

● WHAT can people expect from your coaching?

The work I do comes from my conviction that the vocal skills I learned as a young actor can benefit anyone in the workplace or in everyday life.

I've noticed that people can have great messages or a passion for their subject, but that when they're put in the spotlight, nerves kick in, their confidence and energy levels can drop and their message is lost.

The actor has to fight the adrenalin rush each time he or she goes on stage, and we learn the tools to manage these nerves and to turn them to our advantage.

Having said that, I'm not turning people into actors, instead, I enable them to increase their physical and vocal presence so they're letting more of themselves be seen.

● HOW can the coaching benefit them in everyday life?

The coaching benefits people in a number of ways, through allowing them to be heard in the workplace and in meetings, but one woman put it very succinctly when she said that after doing the course: "I won an argument with my husband for the first time!"

This really delighted me.

● WHAT do you enjoy about the job?

What I love about the job is the real difference it makes to people's lives, the fact that all the sessions are fun and experimental (it's quite physical to start with) and that I work with a wide variety of people, from women returning to work, or setting up their own businesses, The Wellcome Trust, The Foreign and Commonwealth Office, newly qualified teachers, and private clients.

Group sessions are great too, because the participants realise that they're not alone in feeling scared in the spotlight, and they encourage and support each other.

● WHAT do you enjoy doing in your spare time?

In my spare time I read voraciously and still sing professionally.

● WHAT do you like about living in this area?

I first came to know this area about six years ago when visiting my partner Charlie.

It is so lovely having the sea close by and after London I really appreciate being able to follow the seasons.

Since moving down, I've found people to be incredibly friendly and the Lyme Bay Ladies network has been extremely helpful in helping to get my business started locally.

People frequently ask if I miss London, and I can honestly say that I don't - not one bit!

Men's Walk raises more than £40,000 for Hospiscare

BACK in March, Hospiscare was delighted to welcome the 'Men's Walk' to Doubles Locks near Exeter.

The 650 men and boys walked eight miles in fine weather along the canal path to the Turf Hotel and back again to enjoy a pint, a pasty and watch England beat Scotland to retain the Calcutta Cup - and raise an amazing £40,000 for Hospiscare!

One of the walkers, Jack Carter, said: "I walked in memory of my wife, Jan, who was looked after by Hospiscare, but I worried about raising sponsorship as I thought I had no one to ask."

"Then I jotted down the names of family, friends and work colleagues, said, 'Please, will you sponsor me?' and before I knew it I had raised £1,050.

"I felt proud to raise so much money for my wonderful wife - it's a very, very good cause.

"Not only that, I somehow teamed up with another walker who was about my age, so I made a friend on the day too!"

The Men's Walk sponsorship money continues to be paid in, and last month a reminder was sent to all the walkers telling them that the charity was only £131.82 from raising £40,000 from the event.

The next day, a walker called Adrian

Jackman phoned Hospiscare to say he had collected £127 in sponsorship - and Sophie, his 11-year-old daughter, wanted to add her £5 pocket money, just so the event would hit £40K.

Hospiscare would also like to thank Wilkinson Grant, who sponsored the Men's Walk again this year, and the more than 80 volunteers who made this event possible by helping in the event arena or marshalling along the route.

Hospiscare is a local charity, providing free, high quality care and support to people with a progressive life-limiting illness, and those close to them in Exeter, East and Mid Devon.

ADVERTISER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

Party time at Winstons in Seaton on Friday, June 30th

DERICK and Irene are leaving Winstons after four and a half years due to other business commitments, which means we cannot dedicate as much time as we would like to Winstons. We would like to thank all our loyal customers and staff who have supported us and helped to make our time at the pub most memorable!

We have fulfilled our ambition to run our own pub, with all the ups and downs that it throws at you, we have met some amazing people along the way, had some fantastic musical events - who can forget the brilliant 12 hour Music Festival organised by Chris Oakes in aid of the RNLI, all those heavy rock nights, the Elvis Tribute and many many more!

We would like to thank all our suppliers for their help and support, Otter Brewery, St Austell Brewery, RD Johns, Cellarserve are just a few that have been so brilliant, coming to our rescue when we got the orders wrong in the early days.

We will miss you all and would like to invite everyone to our LEAVING PARTY on FRIDAY, JUNE 30th, starting at 8.30pm with a free buffet and live band. The band is CHILL, THE PARTY BAND - people with good memories will recognise them as the band we had on our opening night, so it seems fitting they should be the ones to play us out!

Winstons has been bought by local business man Tim Chew (owner of the Royal Clarence in Seaton), he plans to keep Winstons open for the summer, then will be having a big refurb in the Autumn, opening a bigger and better venue for Seaton to enjoy. We wish Tim and his staff all the very best for the future and we will watch and wait with interest to see Winstons in all its new glory!

Don't forget, come and see us on June 30th and make our last night another memorable event.

Love and best wishes to you all.

Derick and Irene

Impact of bed closures is already being felt

■ DEAR MP and Cllrs: I am writing to protest about the closure of the beds in Honiton Hospital.

I understand that the CCG is already taking steps towards the closure of the beds in September even though the Devon County Council Health Scrutiny Committee has not yet debated the responses from the CCG to the many concerns raised following the meeting of March 19th.

THIS IS ALREADY IMPACTING ON REAL PEOPLE.

Those of us in an end-of-life situation are already being affected by these plans. And what is to happen to our nurses, our wards and valuable equipment and to the hospital site which is already in the hands of NHS Property Services?

We are well aware this is a direct outcome of the former Health Minister Andrew Lansley's 'reforms' and secretive STPs – no real consultation with local authorities or patients – which have created an industry for 'management consultants' and privatisers. We have seen evidence of that.

When you do review the CCG responses I urge you to reject them and refer the Honiton Hospital bed closures to the Independent Reconfiguration Panel and to the Secretary of State.

I also urge you to remember this is already affecting your constituents. Some of us will not accept these plans without a fight.

Finally I urge those of you supporting the present government to make any support CONDITIONAL on withdrawing these plans immediately.

You will eventually be judged by this and patients will speak out.

TONY SIMPSON,
Honiton Senior Voice patients

Flower border a delight

■ WHAT an absolute delight the flower border along Harbour Road is.

It has been mentioned before but it excels this year, so thank you to whoever is taking the trouble; it made my day this morning.

However, the excellent efforts some are making to spruce up our town, like the Malt House and others under wraps, highlights those landlords who are neglecting their properties and letting the town down.

Please, please take your responsibilities seriously and do some external (if not internal) maintenance.

The shopkeepers renting the property are doing their bit it is time you did yours, particularly the area around Byrne Jones shop and the Toy Shop.

HILARY ARNOLD,
Seaton

Austerity and the Emperor's New Clothes

■ I WAS amused by the different attitudes of our newly re-elected Conservative MPs, Neil Parish and Hugo Swire, as reported in your paper last week (View From, June 13th).

One was humble, almost contrite, the other bombastic and triumphal.

It seems to me that they share their leader's misunderstanding of what happened on the national scale.

They both scrambled for reasons 'why?': it was the manifesto, it was the way the campaign was managed, it was the behaviour of 'less than charming' supporters of opponents (pretty rich considering some of the mud-slinging from the national Conservative campaign).

Maybe it was the social media campaign, etc, etc.

Well, I have another view, and it has nothing to do with 'Brexit' – which oddly neither mentioned.

During the Second World War, and the years of recovery afterwards, much of the world endured privations which, today, are almost unimaginable.

In pre-war UK society it was the norm for families to be 'nuclear', with one main source of income. Post-war many families were without a breadwinner.

Children slept in the drawers of furniture; some went shoe-less. There was severe rationing. Many were, quite literally, homeless having been 'bombed out'.

Ordinary people experienced restrictions on their lives and aspirations which make our present use of the term 'austerity', to describe a deliberate political policy, an insult.

I am reminded of Hans Christian Andersen's tale 'The Emperor's New Clothes'.

The major difference between then and now is that the general population had a clear, in many cases very personal, cause for the pain and a reason to endure it.

During the war the economy was directed, it was not a free market economy, and it was directed to one purpose – winning the war.

The only people who made any money were the arms dealers and black market spivs, and the latter were subject to extreme penalties if caught.

Soon after WW2, the country elected a Labour government which directed the economy to peace, and creating a platform for social equality: universal free education, the NHS, mass social housing, which gave the population a pay-off for the pain. It had a vision of what the country could be like.

The so-called 'austerity' of the years after 2008 was entirely different.

The world financial system collapsed, not under the weight of war but under unsustainable debt created by 'loadsamoney' gambling, and stock market speculation. Unlike WW2, the cost and pain of our 21st Century 'austerity' has not been borne equally.

The long term pay-off is not at all clear except to, and by, those who have imposed it.

It has had no vision other than to deliberately, and nakedly, deconstruct the state's involvement in directing the economy.

Its primary aim was to shift the responsibility of delivering almost all state service functions into the private sector for profit.

And as a result, for example, we have burgeoning private health care, housing, prisons, education (for those that can afford them) and, at the same time, the state providers of these services have been systematically starved of resources.

The gaps, where possible, are filled by charities and individual compassion.

In the wake of an unexpected rebuff at a General Election, for the Conservatives to be addressing why so many people didn't vote for them, by changing leadership 'style' and, particularly by rethinking 'austerity', shows how far removed they are from really understanding the popular mood.

They do not see, as we do, that if they can change economic policy now, just because of a poor election result, they could have changed course before.

If they can listen now, they could have listened before.

In my opinion it's not 'austerity' per se that the populace have rejected, it is the pointlessness of it except for those who have benefitted, and will continue to benefit, from it.

There is no 'holy grail' other than some nebulous notion of deficit reduction.

There is no gain worth the pain. Until recently many young people, who apparently voted en-masse for something better on June 8th, had only 'being famous' as an aspiration to escape the future that was being mapped out for them.

The Conservatives simply do not, and cannot, 'get it' because they seem to be intellectually, socially, culturally, some even morally, incapable of grasping that we finally see the Emperor (and Empress) has no clothes.

Advertiser's Announcement

"If you go down to the woods today...."

Well on the 1st July....there will be lots of surprises at The Teddy Bears Picnic at The Folly Nursery in Dalwood!

THE PICNIC is particularly important this year as you may well be aware the government is increasing the hours of childcare available to some families from 15 up to 30 hours.

Parents of 3 and 4 year olds who want to take advantage of the extra 15 hours of childcare need to discover if they are eligible first. If they are eligible they need to give their chosen provider their 11 digit code to register.

Staff at The Folly Nursery will be on hand at the Teddy Bears Picnic to help parents with this process as their children take part in the activities available on the day.

We have limited spaces left for September, so do come and see what we are all about and register any interest with us then.

All families with under-fives welcome.

ARMED FORCES DAY

Saturday 24 June 2017

A chance to show your support and #SaluteOurForces for all they do

National Armed Forces Day 2017

What?

Armed Forces Day is a chance to show your support for the men and women who make up the Armed Forces community: from currently serving troops to Service families, veterans and cadets. There are many ways for people, communities and organisations across the country to show their support and get involved, from attending an event or joining us online to throwing a party or local event.

When?

Armed Forces Day takes place on the last Saturday each June. In 2017, it will take place on Saturday 24 June.

Armed Forces Day celebrations begin on Monday 19 June when the Armed Forces Day flag is raised on buildings and famous landmarks around the country.

Reserves Day on 21 June will also provide an opportunity for the country to recognise our Reserve Forces.

Where?

The National Event in 2017 will be held in Liverpool and local events will be taking place across the country. You can search for your local event on the website.

Why?

Showing support for the Armed Forces provides a much valued morale boost for the troops and their families. You can find out more about what they are doing at home and around the world by visiting the official sites of the Royal Navy, British Army and Royal Air Force.

The public show their support for the Armed Forces on Armed Forces Day, but did you know the Armed Forces Covenant outlines how the Government, businesses and communities support Armed Forces personnel past and present throughout the year?

Who?

The Armed Forces

The UK Armed Forces defend the UK and its interests. They are busy working around the world, promoting peace, delivering aid, tackling drug smugglers, providing security and fighting terrorism.

Veterans

A veteran is anyone who has served in the HM Armed Forces at any time (including National Servicemen, Regulars and Reserves). Armed Forces Day celebrates their continued role within the military community.

You can find out more information about support for Veterans on the Veterans-UK website or by calling Veterans UK on 0808 1914 218.

Reservists

Reservists give up their spare time to serve in the Reserve Forces, balancing their civilian life with a military career to ensure that should their country require them, they would be ready to serve.

An annual Reserves Day celebrates their contribution to the Armed Forces. Reserves Day is the Wednesday ahead of Armed Forces Day - 21 June.

Cadets

The Cadet Forces (Sea Cadets, Army Cadets, Air Cadets and the Combined Cadet Force) currently support over 130,000 young people in more than 3,000 locations across the UK. Cadets learn life and career building skills as well as gaining vocational qualifications..

Families

Our Armed Forces couldn't do their job without the incredible support of their family and friends.

Charities

Although Armed Forces Day is not a charitable event, the Armed Forces have the support of several UK charities and many local events will offer opportunities to support them.

#SALUTEOURFORCES

#SaluteOurForces is a simple way for anyone to pay tribute to the British Armed Forces community for their hard work, dedication and efforts to and keep us safe in the UK and across the globe. ARMED FORCES DAY

Saturday 24 June 2017

A chance to show your support and #SaluteOurForces for all they do

ARMED FORCES COVENANT

ARMED Forces personnel and their families make many sacrifices in serving their country.

For the serving personnel, ultimately it can mean putting themselves in harm's way, which can result in injury and potential difficulty in integrating back into civilian life.

For families, it can mean having to move around the country every few years. This affects places on NHS waiting lists and children's schooling. Relocating can cause partners difficulty finding jobs, and getting credit or mortgages.

To balance this, the Government created the Armed Forces Covenant. Written into law, it says that Armed Forces personnel, veterans or their families will not be disadvantaged by their military life when accessing goods and services, compared to other citizens.

Highlights of Covenant achievements from central government, local government and businesses include:

- A government Forces Help to Buy Scheme which helps Armed Forces personnel to get on or stay on the property ladder; a challenge made more difficult by a mobile Military lifestyle

- More than 500 companies both large and small making a range of commitments to Armed Forces personnel such as guaranteed interviews on leaving the Forces

- A £35 million government fund for schemes and projects for mental health and injured Service personnel. This includes organising short holiday breaks for Service family members with additional needs / disabilities, and Combat Stress mental health community outreach programme.

- Career development for Service partners, such as the Royal British Legion 'Industries Lifeworks' for families and the University of Wolverhampton 'Dependents' Business Start Up' programme

AFD NATIONAL EVENT

THE 2017 National Event will be held in the heart of Liverpool on Saturday 24 June.

Liverpool has a rich military history and continued connections with the Armed Forces. Mayor of Liverpool, Joe Anderson, said:

"We do scale, spectacle and storytelling better than any other UK city, and I am delighted that our reputation for staging events has once again received national recognition, and as a result we have been selected as the location to host this prestigious celebration."

This day gives us the chance to recognise the role of the Armed Forces and thank all those men and women who have dedicated their lives to protecting our country.

Liverpool City Council will now develop its own plans and the event will be linked with the International Mersey River Festival – a celebration of the waterfront with family fun, music and entertainment – with linked activities taking place across the weekend of 24 and 25 June.

Earl Howe said:

Liverpool has long and deep links to the Armed Forces, particularly the Royal Navy, and is well-known for hosting spectacular celebrations; we're delighted to select it for Armed Forces Day 2017, building on the success of this year's celebration in Cleethorpes.

The city's national event will be a fantastic focal point for the UK to come together to acknowledge the hard work and sacrifice of those that serve.

Blood Brothers on stage this week

*"Did you hear the tale of the Johnston twins,
As like each other as two new pins
Of one womb born on the self-same day
How one was kept, one give away"*

THESE iconic words written by Willy Russell, of Educating Rita fame, are the start of a tragic yet poignant play about class division. Blood Brothers tracks the lives of two twins, Eddie and Mickey, separated at birth but drawn together by a series of coincidence and the bonds of friendship. It is this bond which is finally torn apart as "They were born and they died on the self-same day".

This play has been a great experience for the cast of ADC Youth as it is such a British classic and it has challenged each member to look further than just the words written. It considers family, education, employment, housing and relationships, offering not only entertainment but also a number of topics for discussion that are relevant to young people today.

The Darkside of Pink Floyd

More than just an ordinary Pink Floyd tribute band, The Darkside of Pink Floyd entertain audiences with a fantastic light show and passionate performances.

Due to the demand for their exquisite reproduction of Pink Floyd's classic music, The Darkside of Pink Floyd are a regular feature at major national music venues, festivals and theatres. They were also the first band to play a live public performance inside the prehistoric caves of the world famous Kents Cavern, and they had a sell-out concert deep underground at Carnglaze Caverns as part of their highly acclaimed 'Echoes of the Past' tour.

The band are regulars at the world's biggest and best tribute festival, having played to capacity crowds at Glastonbudget. They have also headlined at BMAD, one of the biggest Music & Motorbike Festivals in the UK. Nominated as Best Tribute Act in the South West Music Awards.

The Darkside of Pink Floyd play live at The Beehive, Honiton, on Saturday, June 24th. Doors open 7pm, and tickets are £15 (seated) available by calling 01404 384050 or online at www.beehivehoniton.co.uk

World-famous tenor takes lead in Verdi's Otello

WORLD-FAMOUS tenor Jonas Kaufmann makes his role debut as Otello in Verdi's passionate retelling of Shakespeare's great tragedy of jealousy, deception and murder, and The Beehive in Honiton will be screening the performance live.

Soprano Maria Agresta will be his Desdemona and baritone Marco Vratogna his nemesis Iago in a new production by Olivier Award winning director Keith Warner.

A major work of the opera repertoire, Verdi's Otello draws on the full forces of the Orchestra of the Royal Opera House, the Royal Opera Chorus and this stellar line-up of principal singers, with exquisite duets, emotionally potent solo numbers and thrilling choruses.

Particular highlights include Otello and Desdemona's rapturous love duet and Desdemona's poignant 'Willow Song'. Royal Opera Music Director Antonio Pappano conducts this Italian masterpiece.

Otello will be broadcast live on Wednesday, June 28th at 7.15pm. The screening's running time will be approximately 2h 45m (including one interval). Sung in Italian with English subtitles.

Tickets: Adult £15, Student/Child £12, Family of four (2+2) £46

The Beach Boys Story

GUARANTEED to leave you with a smile on your face, with a song in your heart and reflecting on a truly memorable live music experience, The Beach Boys Story is a show you do not want to miss.

"Excellent!", "Fantastic!", "The best tribute band I've ever seen" are comments often heard at the end of this remarkable show; it's easy to see why this is such a huge smash. You will be amazed how just five performers can reproduce 100% live, the complex orchestral arrangements and intricate harmonies of America's biggest ever pop group.

Come join the fun and ride the wave of adrenaline and nostalgia that will sweep you from surf to sun and from hit to hit. The Beach Boys Band delivers a stunning show of technicolour harmonies that will take your breath away.

A unique opportunity to hear every chart hit America's biggest pop band ever recorded including: God Only Knows - Good Vibrations - I Get Around - Wouldn't It Be Nice - Surfin' USA - Fun Fun Fun - California Girls - Sloop John B and many more that you will know.

The Beach Boys Story comes to The Beehive, Honiton on Friday, June 30th at 7.30pm. This show is suitable for all age groups. Tickets are £15 (seated) - if you think you might like to enjoy a dance in the aisles, please book the front section of seats.

Edinburgh comedy preview weekend at the Marine Theatre

THIS weekend the Marine Theatre is bringing a little piece of Edinburgh to Lyme Regis as it plays host to a weekend of comedy talent road testing their shows ahead of the world's largest arts festival.

For aficionados who want to be ahead of the comedy curve or just can't make it up to Scotland this year, book up now for a fraction of the normal price and play your part in fine-tuning four new Fringe shows.

On Friday night Tom Lucy and Angela Barnes take to the stage.

Following in the footsteps of Johnny Vegas, Seann Walsh and Josh Widdicombe, Tom Lucy was crowned Leicester Mercury Comedian of the Year 2016. At just 20, Tom is one of the youngest comedians working professionally on the UK circuit. Having first tried stand up at the age of 16 he now performs regularly for some of the UK's top clubs including The Glee Club, Up the Creek and Komedia.

John Bishop called him 'too young, too good' while the Guardian said, 'Watch him live and you'll quickly understand the excitement.'

Angela Barnes is a BBC New Comedy Awards winner who was inspired to become a comedian by her characterful late father who was a sex shop manager, naturist and an enthusiast for caravans and pranks.

Since winning the BBC Radio 2's New Comedy Award in 2011 she's continued as a regular on the stand-up circuit playing even bigger venues whilst also writing for and appearing in a number of Radio 4 shows as well as hosting her own four-part series You Can't Take It With You.

On Saturday it's the turn of Phil Jerrod and Paul McCaffrey to showcase their new material.

Phil Jerrod began his stand-up career underneath an Angus Steakhouse in 2012. Since then he has failed his PhD, walked out of his job in publishing and has been entertaining audiences up and down the country with his elegant rants on the often unfathomable problems of modern life.

The Guardian said of him 'Casual brilliance ... instinctive mastery of his form immediately marks him out as one to watch.'

Paul McCaffrey is an accomplished radio presenter and guest as well as an award-winning comedian. The Scotsman thought he was 'Born to be a comic' while The Shortlist said, 'McCaffrey simply has funny bones.'

To book tickets for the Marine's Comedy Preview Shows on Friday, June 23 and Saturday, June 24th at 8pm call the box office on 01297 442138 or go to www.marinetheatre.com. All tickets at just £6.

Love is all you need

Taunton's Phoenix Singers to perform a concert of romantic songs

ROMANCE is in the air at Ilminster Arts Centre on Sunday, July 2nd with a musical entertainment by the Phoenix Singers reflecting on love in all its many moods.

Romance: It's Only Love features choral music and songs across a spectrum of styles, including composers such as Monteverdi, Passereau, Elgar, Turner, Brahms, Lennon & McCartney, George & Ira Gershwin and Rodgers & Hart.

The eclectic programme explores the genre of romantic song, which speaks to us from across the centuries and from several countries. Whether the madrigal of the 16th-century writer, the anonymously created folk song, the sophisticated harmonies of a Brahms or Elgar, or the clever lyrics of Cole Porter, love is the source of so much music in our lives. Or, as Lennon & McCartney put it "It's only love, and that is all".

The Phoenix Singers perform at Ilminster Arts Centre at 6.30pm on Sunday, July 2nd. Tickets are £12, or £17 including a pre-show tea and cakes at 5.30pm.

To book, please contact the Box Office at Ilminster Arts Centre on 01460 54973.

The Folk Day will run from 11am-3pm, and a licensed bar and food will be available.

God at work Past, present, future

ST ANDREW'S Church in Colyton will be transformed into the Holy Land from June 21st to 25th. A major interactive exhibition will recreate important locations in the life of Jesus. Jerusalem, Galilee, wilderness and shore will show the backdrop to God at Work - past, present, future. The exhibition will showcase the places where key events in the life of Jesus happened including Cana where he performed his first miracle; the Judean desert where he fought a spiritual battle against evil; the first Easter in Jerusalem - and many more.

By recreating these scenarios the people of St Andrew's hope to help people to visualise what the life of Christ might have been like and to make the stories of the New Testament more alive and vivid.

Alongside the locations there will also be displays of flowers linked to the stories of Jesus' life highlighted by the exhibition.

Visitors will be able to follow a story-trail and a timeline of Jesus' life, and see how the concerns Jesus had for the people he met continue to inspire Christians today. The exhibition will be open to pre-booked schools on weekday mornings and to the general public from 1.00pm. Over the weekend of 24th-25th it will be open to all from 10.00am on Saturday, and Sunday from 11.00am with special events during the evenings.

Table top sale

THE NEXT Table Top Sale in aid of Beer Horticultural Society takes place in the Mariners Hall, Beer on Saturday, June 24th, from 9am - 12.30pm. All tables have been sold and the Society are hoping for a busy morning. Refreshments are available once again from 9 - 12, with Nana Pauline in charge of the bacon or sausage baps, so don't leave it too late to come along, or they will all be gone!

The Schedules for the Flower Show on 3rd August will once again be available to buy and we would love it if we had some new entrants this year, especially in the Children's and Allotment Holders Sections. The Children's classes also include a photo class for the first time, and the subject is a "Selfie". There are also classes for a Scarecrow, a miniature garden, model from recycling material, funniest animal from vegetables, as well as cookery, painting, and Lego model classes, so there is plenty of choice for the young exhibitor. Schedules are also on sale in the local shops in Beer.

Due to the Flower Show Week, there are no table top sales in July and August, but they will resume in September. If anyone wishes to book a table for that one, please call Audrey on 01297-20048.

The Society would like to thank everyone who has supported us with this fundraising venture, either by having a table, or coming along on the day - we are very grateful for your support.

The Rautio Piano Trio to play Somerset concerts

CONCERT IN THE WEST audiences will be delighted to learn that the versatile violinist and concertmaster Jane Gordon will be returning to the West Country for a concert tour from July 6-8th encompassing Highampton, Bridport, Ilminster and Crewkerne.

For this tour Jane will be part of the dynamic Rautio Piano Trio, playing alongside fellow musicians Victoria Simonsen, cello and Jan Rautio, piano. The trio has gained a reputation for innovative programming and captivating performances using historical instruments.

The Rautio Piano Trio have given many performances at top class venues throughout the UK, France, Austria, Germany and Israel, including the Wigmore Hall as part of the Young Artists Series, as well as at the South Bank and Bridgewater Hall. They have also played live on BBC Radio 3. Their CD of Mozart Piano Trios with Resonus Classics was hailed by the Observer as 'an impressive achievement.'

Jane Gordon, Jan Rautio and Victoria Simonsen will play Ilminster Arts Centre at the Meeting House on Friday, July 7th at 8pm. Tickets are £15, and a pre-concert supper is available at 7pm for £14 but must be pre-booked. To book, or for more details call 01460 55783 or visit www.themeetinghouse.org.uk

The trio then play at The Dance House, Gouldsbrook View, North Street, Crewkerne, TA18 7AL (The Dance House is just behind the Baptist Church in North Street) on Saturday, July 8th. Tickets are £15, with concessions for students and children. For advance bookings please email concertsinthewest@gmail.com or you can text 07776 995789 or book at Eventbrite www.eventbrite.co.uk or you can buy on the night from 6.45pm, but it is worth checking ticket availability beforehand. Tickets can also be purchased at the Local Information Centre in the Town Hall. Interval drinks. Town parking and car parks. Doors open at 6.45pm

Modern jazz giant comes to Ilminster

RENOWNED saxophonist Jean Toussaint teams up with the Craig Milverton trio to perform an evening of top notch 'hard bop' modern jazz on Friday, June 23rd.

A colossus of modern jazz, Jean Toussaint played through the 1980s with Art Blakey's Jazz Messengers, probably the best known, longest lasting, and highest profile, hard bop group there has ever been. Since then, he hasn't looked back, nor has he spent a career trying to repeat the past. The experiences he gained in that world-class hothouse have enabled him to push forward and embrace challenging and often high profile musical collaborations in many different jazz styles. Today he is based in London as a band leader/composer, and educator.

Craig Milverton has played at Ilminster many times, and his trio has become almost a resident group, accompanying most of the leading visiting players. He has played extensively in the UK and at venues and festivals around the world, in doing so the list of musicians he has played with includes the best known names in the world of jazz. Craig won the UK Jazz Award for piano in 2010. Few British pianists have Craig's thorough knowledge and grasp of jazz styles. His love of the music shines through and he is a natural at whatever he plays.

Jean Toussaint with the Craig Milverton Trio perform at Ilminster Arts Centre at the Meeting House on Friday, June 23rd at 8pm. Tickets are £16 (pre-show supper available for £14 at 7pm, but must be pre-booked). For more details and to book call 01460 54973 or visit the website at www.themeetinghouse.org.uk

The rumbles in the Jungle

CLOKS are adding the final touches in rehearsals ahead of their double feature, due to hit the stage next week.

The group will perform Disney's 'The Jungle Book', and 'Back from the Jungle' (by Maria and Jonathan Farey).

Mowgli the man-cub (Max Thompson and Henry Colvin) has been raised in the jungle by wolves but Shere Khan; the nasty tiger and King of the Jungle wants rid of him. Bagheera the panther (Livvie Coles and Issy Swarbrick) decides to take Mowgli back to the man village. Join Mowgli, Bagheera, Baloo the bear (Sebastian Horne and Addison Coath) and all the wonderful characters they meet along the way on their journey through the jungle.

Heading 'Back to the Jungle', Mandar (Charlie Orr-Ewing), a young man who spent his childhood in the Jungle, has decided it is time to try and find his rightful family, after receiving a letter on his 18th birthday. He meets Anisha (Mia Bond) and immediately feels like he's known them forever. He is taken in by a family of sisters; Shikka, Suvali, Sarisha and their older sister Serena (Polly Farey), and Mandar also feels a special connection to her! Join him on his journey to find his way back home in a tale of family, friendship and being reunited with loved ones.

SUCCESSFUL HAIR DRESSING BUSINESS & SPACIOUS FAMILY HOME

ON OFFER for sale as a whole is a successful, long established hair dressing business together with a spacious three bedroom first floor apartment, situated in the heart of the pretty little town of Colyton in East Devon. The bright, well presented accommodation comprises three bedrooms, bathroom, good size dining hall, with Beer stone fireplace, generous sitting room and kitchen, with views to the church from the large split level roof terrace. Features include, some stripped floors and gas central heating. The business is presently run as established busy hairdressing salon, however this could change subject to the usual consents.

Colyton is a small market town (more like a village) with a small town centre offering a good range of daily needs including two convenience stores, fish and chip shop, butcher, hairdressers, post office, small stationers, pharmacy, health centre, garden centre, library and a few other individual shops. On the edge of the town is the tramway station which operates services throughout the summer along the Axe Estuary to Seaton. The Jurassic Coast and pretty harbour at Axmouth is just 2.5 miles away and the ever-popular seaside resort of Lyme Regis just 7 miles to the east. There is a primary school in the town and the well regarded Colyton Grammar School is just over a mile away. A beautiful Church is at the heart of the town and there is an interesting variety of architecture. Nearby Axminster (6 miles), has a mainline station with regular trains to London Waterloo and Exeter. The city of Exeter is approx. 25mins by car and the airport just outside Exeter is approx. 19 miles.

The property is offered to the market with an asking price of £349,950. Please call Gordon and Rumsby for more details or to arrange a viewing on 01297 553768.

All-Terrain and Cabriolet add new dimensions to E-Class line-up

THE NEW Mercedes-Benz E-Class Cabriolet and E-Class All-Terrain are now available to order, along with new versions of the E-Class Coupé, Saloon and Estate. The cabriolet is priced from £44,675 for the E 220 d AMG Line Cabriolet. The All-Terrain is available in one special launch edition: All-Terrain Edition, from £58,880.

E-Class All-Terrain Edition

The E-Class All-Terrain Estate comes with standard 4MATIC all-wheel-drive, a nine-speed automatic gearbox and one efficient diesel engine, badged E 350 d. This 3.0-litre turbocharged V6 generates 258 hp and 620 Nm and emits 179 g/km, while delivering combined fuel economy of up to 41.5 mpg. It has a top speed of 155 mph, and accelerates from 0 to 62 mph in just 6.2 seconds.

The All-Terrain Edition comes generously equipped as standard, with a Burmester surround sound system; Air Body Control air suspension; panoramic electric sunroof; Comand Online with a 12.3-inch infotainment display and 12.3-inch cockpit display – creating a widescreen effect; memory package, including electrically operated front seats; LED Intelligent Light System; Keyless-Go Comfort package; privacy glass; split folding rear seats; 20-inch twin-spoke alloy wheels; and an electrically folding tow bar with a 13-pin adapter. It has a towing capacity of up to 2,100 kg.

Dynamic Select – which allows the driver to tailor steering, suspension and accelerator settings – is also standard and features a specific All-Terrain mode, raising the vehicle by 20 mm.

The E-Class All-Terrain is 39 millimetres higher than the E 350d AMG Line Estate. The highest suspension setting gives ground clearance of up to 156 mm. The 4MATIC permanent four-wheel-drive distributes power between the front and rear axles with a split of 31:69.

E-Class Cabriolet

The E-Class Cabriolet is a full four-seater, with a multi-layer acoustic fabric roof that can be operated at speeds up to 31 mph and opened or closed in just 20 seconds. The roof can be specified in one of three no-cost option colours: black; dark blue and dark brown.

There are four engines available from launch: E 220 d; E 350 d 4MATIC; E 300; and E 400 4MATIC.

The E 220 d features a 2.0-litre diesel engine producing 194 hp, and 400 Nm of torque. It emits 126 g/km of CO₂ and delivers up to 57.7 mpg on the combined cycle, while 0 to 62 mph takes 7.7 seconds. The E 350 d 4MATIC's 3.0-litre V6 unit has an output of 258 hp and 620 Nm. Combined fuel economy is 41.5 mpg, and CO₂ emissions 179 g/km, and 0 to 62 mph takes 6.1 seconds.

The E 300 uses a 2.0-litre petrol engine producing 245 hp and 370 Nm and can accelerate from 0 to 62 mph in 6.6 seconds. It has a CO₂ output of 167 g/km and can deliver up to 39.2 combined mpg. The range-topping E 400 4MATIC has a 3.0-litre biturbo V6 engine generating 333 hp and 480 Nm. It emits 194 g/km of CO₂ and delivers 32.8 mpg combined. It can sprint from 0 to 62 mph in 5.5 seconds, and has an electronically limited top speed of 155 mph.

Standard specification for the E-Class Cabriolet is based on that of the E-Class Coupé, with the addition of the Airscarf neck-level heating system and Aircap, which helps to redirect the air flow over the cabin for a more relaxing driving experience. Other standard equipment includes: Agility Control suspension; Magic Vision Control wiper system; LED high performance headlights; reversing camera; heated front seats; and ambient lighting with a choice of 64 colours. Air Body Control air suspension and Comand Online – including the 12.3-inch infotainment screen – are optionally available for £1,495, or standard on the E 400 4MATIC. A second 12.3-inch screen is £495.

A Premium package is optionally available for £1,795 and adds Memory package (including electrically operated front seats) and Keyless-Go Comfort package (keyless entry and start, plus hands-free boot access). The £2,895 Premium Plus package adds to the Premium package with a Burmester Surround Sound system and Multibeam LED Intelligent Light System. Exclusive to the E-Class Cabriolet is the new Rubellite Red metallic paint, which costs £645.

The optional Driving Assistance Plus Package (£1,695) includes Drive Pilot, which combines Distance Pilot Distronic; Speed Limit Pilot; Active Lane-Change Assistant; Active Brake Assist cross-traffic function; Evasive Steering Assist; and Pre-Safe Impulse Side.

New edition of the 14 million unit best-seller charismatic Polo overcomes class boundaries

WITH more than 14 million units sold, it is one of the world's most successful compact cars: the Polo. Now a completely new generation of the best-seller is launching. With an entirely new exterior design, noticeably more spacious interior that has also been redesigned down to the last detail, new cockpit layout structured for the digital world, efficient TSI (petrol), TGI (natural gas) and TDI (diesel) engines 1/2 as well as an array of assistance systems which previously was only familiar in larger Volkswagen cars. Dr Herbert Diess, Chairman of the Board of Management for the Volkswagen brand: "The Polo is a young, fresh car. It combines charisma with strong technology. No other car offers so much space for its size. This makes our Polo the number one compact, and it will remain number one."

Five equipment versions and three packages

The Polo is launching in three familiar trim lines Trendline, Comfortline and Highline, and in the 'Beats' special edition with a sound system configured for contemporary sound. Another version that appears from the start on the new car's life: the Polo GTI. Several packages are also being offered in the form of R-Line, Black and Style. All three have a lot to offer. Consider the R-Line: it makes the Polo even more dynamic with such features as 16-inch alloy wheels ('Sebring'), a big, sporty front bumper and at the rear a diffuser with chrome trim and a roof spoiler. The Polo with an R-Line package also has wrap-around black sill trim strips which visually press the car down to the road. The R-Line package also upgrades the interior completely – adding dynamism at a low additional price.

Trendline

Even the base version of the new Polo, the Trendline, is well equipped and has standard features such as LED daytime running lights with coming-home and leaving-home functionality, a speed limiter and the Front Assist area monitoring system with City Emergency Braking and Pedestrian Monitoring. These are all features that confirm safety does not allow for any compromises. On the Polo Trendline, power is transferred to the road via 14-inch wheels. The base price of the Polo

Trendline is 12,975 euros in Germany – this represents a significant price advantage compared to the previous model when the price is adjusted for now standard options such as the rear doors and the area monitoring system that is included free-of-charge.

Comfortline

At the Comfortline trim level, additional details are added such as the Composition Colour infotainment system, air conditioning (Climatic), Driver Alert system, centre armrest, seat covers in knitted velvet, front and rear electric windows with one-touch control, and a multifunction steering wheel. Also standard: 15-inch wheels.

Highline

Customers who choose the Highline also get Park Distance Control (PDC), white LED background lighting (front doors and instrument panel), multifunction steering wheel in combination with leather-trimmed gear shift lever and brake lever ('small leather package') and 15-inch alloy wheels ('Salou').

Beats

A new edition of the successful Polo Beats has been designed, which targets younger customer groups. It has a 300-watt sound system by legendary US headphone producer Beats (Dr. Dre) as well as a host of other features. Exterior features include 16-inch alloy wheels, black painted exterior mirror housings, decorative decals on the bonnet and roof and 'Beats' badging on the B-pillars. Inside, the 'Beats' model is customised with such features as a dashpad painted in 'Velvet Red', sport seats with specially designed covers and 'Beats' logo, the 'small leather package' and special sill panel trims. The sound system can be ordered as an option in other models.

GTI

Rounding out the model range at the top, as already noted, is the new Polo GTI. This sporty top model will now be powered by a 2.0-litre TSI with an output of 147 kW / 200 PS (previous model: 1.8 TSI with 141 kW / 192 PS). Matching the engine's high output are the standard sport chassis and the optional Sport Select chassis. At the front, this most powerful Polo stands out by virtue of such features as a specially designed bumper with integrated spoiler lip and fog lights as standard. Typical GTI insignia at the front include the red stripe on the radiator grille, honeycomb air vent screens and, of course, the GTI badge. An exclusive feature offered in the GTI: optional LED headlights with a red winglet; stylistically they are extensions of the red stripe of the radiator grille. At the rear, the Polo GTI sports a large roof spoiler in high-gloss black (underside: black matt), a diffuser in the bumper, GTI-specific dual tailpipes (left side), LED tail lights and, again, the GTI badge. On the sides, GTI characteristics include standard 17-inch alloy wheels (18-inch optional), side sill extensions and brake calipers that are painted red. In the interior, the 200-PS Polo also offers unique characteristics that are typical of a GTI. They include top sport seats with the legendary 'Clark' tartan pattern, a multifunction leather-trimmed sport steering wheel with red stitching, rooflining and roof pillars in black and a GTI gear shift grip. Also included as standard: ambient lighting.

jack high bowls round-up

SEATON with Alan Nicholas
ON SUNDAY, June 11th the Ladies National Top Club team had a tight, five shot home win in the morning over Madeira B and now progress to the next round.

In the afternoon, club captain Graham Thomas, set up a fun day for our own members, including new novice members.

The afternoon was a great success with the 'most important' event being 'The Spider' which involved all players bowling just one wood from any point around the green, at a 'bullseye' target set in the absolute centre of the green, simultaneously.

To make this even more tricky, every bowler had one foot on the green and one foot in the ditch.

The single winner being the bowl that settled nearest the centre of the target. The prize was taken by long serving member, Ted Talbot.

Back to more serious competition with Tuesday's East of Exe Mixed League evening match, at home, against Uffculme.

The result went to Seaton, three rinks won and the other drawn. Total shots score of 96 to Seaton and 60 to the visitors.

Top rink for Seaton: Glenn Elliott, Ruby Grigg, Ron Rowley and Roger Woodland.

Wednesday saw five matches played, three of which were against Honiton teams - with Seaton taking all.

The Ladies Over 50s Blue team took on Honiton Blue in an away match with a win for both triples and a shots score of 41 against 22.

The best triple being Lin Vieth, Lillian Hurley-Smith and Barbara Sluman with a score of 23-9.

Lin Vieth playing in her first league match for the club, had an excellent game and will now be called on regularly.

The Men's Over 60s Triple League A team also played away to Honiton A, with them also taking the match by two triples to nil, and a score of 41 against 21.

The Best triple was Terry Hurley-Smith, Ken Shean and Roger Woodland, scoring 24 shots against 7.

The third match was the Men's Over 60s B team against Honiton B on our home green. This resulted in an excellent eight point, 52 shots to 22 win. Top triple: Ed Backhouse, Bob Scull and Dave Yardley, scoring 27 against 5.

Meanwhile, the Ladies Over 50s Red Team played at Feniton, where they won one triple and lost the other, with a total shots score of 31 to 41.

Seaton took just two points; the one winning triple was: Liz Wilde, Ann Joyner and Sue Banwell-Moore.

Also on Wednesday, the Men's Over 60s Triple 'C' team took on Marina C on our home green, with the result being drawn - one triple each and total shots of 33 each.

Thus four points to each team; Seaton's winning triple was: Dennis Ridd, Peter Grigg and Reg Pluck scoring 21 against 15.

Finally, I have to report that on Thursday evening Seaton faced Feniton in the Foxlands, with one rink at home and one rink away.

Sadly, Seaton took a hammering, with the home rink going down 31 shots to 10 and the away rink also losing 27 shots to 14.

HONITON with Julie Grant

THE county major competitions have been completed at section level.

Through to the last 16 in Devon from Honiton are Carole Binmore in both two wood and four wood singles; Tracy Lambert, Laraine Carless and Hannah Morley in the triples; Janet Sherwood, Julie Grant, Carole Binmore and Sue Evans in the fours.

Other results show Honiton losing in the East of Exe league to Feniton 64 shots to 79, best rink Joan Mackintosh, Jimmy Smith, Carole Pidgeon and Trevor Pipe 20-14.

Also losing in both mixed friendlies, first to Tiverton Park in the sweltering heat at the weekend 51 shots to 67, top triple Malcolm Grainger, Mike Critchley and Ken Clarke 16-12. Then to Bovey Tracy 61 shots to 66 top rink Joan Mackintosh, Sam Sherwood and Jimmy Smith 18-11.

In other leagues Honiton did not fair well against Seaton, losing in the men's Over 60 A game and in the ladies' Over 50s match.

However the men's Over 60 A team had a splendid win over Dawlish Marina gaining eight points by winning on both rinks - so well done to Mike Critchley, Sam Sherwood and Bill Nicholls 16-15 and to Ken Clarke, Mike Dart and Gerry Stafrace 16-13.

CHARDSTOCK

with Vaughan Fletcher
Exeter & District Over 60s Triples Bowling League: (June 14th) Chardstock A at home to Pines B 44-38; V Fletcher, J Rolph & J Porter 20-19; P Compton, K Wakelin & B Howard 24-19.

Chardstock B away to Chagford 33-48; J Keats, P Woods & G Bodily 21-26; A Campbell, D Elbridge & B Howard 12-22.

FRIENDLIES: June 13th - Chardstock Ladies at home to South Petherton Ladies 32-37; J Porter, P Baldwin, D Emery & A Dredge 22-16; M Davenport, P Waddington, C Bradford & G Campbell 10-21.

June 16th - Chardstock away at Wellington 92-86; S Hatcliffe, R Pratt & John Porter 26-20; Jeanette Porter, A Callagan & J Rolph 7-32; J Pratt, D Hatcliffe & M Toms 25-10; A Badley, E Rolph & S Jeffery 15-10; N Mugridge, A Campbell & G Campbell 19-14.

June 18th - Chardstock at home to Budleigh Salterton 54-79; N Barron, A Waddington & J Porter 17-17; M Davenport, J Milford & G Campbell 6-29; V Barron, J Pratt & G Bodily 13-14; N Mugridge, M Copp & R Pratt 18-19.

MERRIOTT with Jean Crisp

MERRIOTT had a quiet week, recording just an 85-55 win in the league match at SHAFESBURY which earned 14 out of the 16 points available.

Rink scores: J.Parsons, P.Stow, P.Melson & B.Rosewell 15-11. D.Baker, I.Kendall, C.Warrett & J.Crisp 34-9. R.Self, C.Truscott, J.Ashby & E.Rush 22-15. C.Parsons, N.Whitefield, C.Woods & A.Truscott 14-20.

CREWKERNE

with Anne Smith

THE first two months of the season has produced mixed results for Crewkerne BC.

The first three games in the Men's County League has seen us win one, tie one and lose one.

In the Wessex Mixed League we have wins against Queen Camel (twice), Westlands and Sherborne and defeats by Shepton Mallett, South Petherton, Sherborne - all very close games.

Castle Cary and Shaftsbury also beat us in a very close Wessex Mixed Knockout Cup match.

OTTERY ST MARY

with Michael Smith

OTTERY had a fine success over our close rivals Feniton in the County Trophy, with two rinks to Feniton and one rink to Ottery with one drawn, the Otters still came out victors 84-75 thanks in part to a superb 30-10 victory by skip Terry House with John Mabbott, Chris Hawke and John Pethick.

In the Men's Over 60s league the 'A' team had a narrow defeat to Tiverton West End 'A' 31-35, the 'B' Team also just going down by three shots 29-32 away to the Tiverton West End 'C' team, though winning on one rink 20-10 with John Mabbott, George Kille and skip Brian Baker.

The 'C' team found Seaton 'C' team too strong going down heavily on both rinks.

The ladies had a good victory at home to St Thomas in the LNBTL 36-31; Carol Keating, Val Kille and skip Margaret Bright winning 26-12.

In a friendly at home to Dunksell, the visitors won 69-56 winning on two rinks with two rinks drawn.

In another home fixture to Bovey Tracey, the rinks were shared three each, but again the visitors came away with the victory 149-91.

In the County Trophy Madeira proved too strong winning on all four rinks.

In the men's over 60s league the 'A' team recorded their second win of the season overcoming Uffculme 'A' 37-24 in a seven point win with John Ward, John Pethick and skip Terry House having a 22-9 success.

The 'B' team had a six point win away to St Thomas 'C', Tony Bushell, Norman Lawrence and skip Ray Luscombe winning 23-11; the next day was

PETANQUE Honiton

HONITON Petanque faced two matches on their visit to North Devon last week but it was a disappointing awayday for the Mountbatten Park bowlers with two defeats, which sees them drop to fifth in the Devon League.

The team for both matches was the same: Chris Bigmore, Charlie O'Reilly, Larry Halliwell, Jenny Lavender, Tony Prior and Cecily Young - and they travelled hopeful of repeating the results from the reverse fixtures three weeks ago, when they recorded two home wins against Pig On The Hill (Westward Ho!) 3-2 and Torridge U3A 4-1.

This time the results were reversed too, with losses of 3-2 at the POTH and 5-0 at Torridge.

The only scorers of the day, less successful losing to Madeira 'C' 23-42, winning on one rink 17-12 with John Mabbott, Dave Rose and skip Brian Baker.

The 'C' team suffered another defeat to Hemyock 'B' going down on both rinks.

In the ladies' LNBTL Ottery had a resounding 48-18 win at home to Exonia, the best rink being that of Fenella Griggs, Val Kille and skip Sharon Kenny 21-4.

● CONGRATULATIONS must go to club member Dave Brown who has gained his County Badge.

Dave represented the county in a match at Culm Vale, where he was presented with the badge.

To cap a fine performance Dave was also on the winning side - well done, Dave!

gained in the first match, were the triple of Halliwell, Prior and Young followed by a win again in the doubles for Halliwell and Young, so earning two valuable points for the team.

"We try not to make excuses but they were both very tricky terrains, new to half of our team," said Captain Chris Bigmore.

"We went hoping to gain maybe four or five points, so we were a bit deflated, but that just shows the progress we are making this season and as I have said before we remain on target and positive."

Three of Honiton's remaining four matches this season are at home, and next up they face a tough match when they entertain Plymouth, the only unbeaten side in the league.

FOOTBALL SW Peninsula League

AXMINSTER Town kick off local interest in the South West Peninsula League Division One (East) 2017-18 season with the visit of Galmpton United to Tiger Way on Friday, August 11th (7.30pm ko).

Ax player-manager Jon Hurford and his squad, sixth last season, will fancy their chances against Galmpton who finished down in 14th - however, the Tigers failed to beat their visitors in any of their last four encounters.

Prior to this Hurford has so far lined-up the following pre-season fixtures: Seaton Town (A) Friday, July 14th, 6.45ko; Elmore (A) Friday, July 21st, 7.30ko; Ilminster Town (H) Tuesday, July 25th, 7.30ko; and Bridport (H) Friday, July 28th, 7.30ko.

New boys Honiton Town make their league debut at Crediton United on Tuesday, August 15th (7.30pm). The 'Kyrtion' finished in midtable and will be an immediate good test for new Honiton manager Paul Ashford and his troops.

It's a busy start for the Hippos with five games, three of them away, in the opening 14 days.

AUGUST FIXTURES: Axminster Town (evening games 7.30pm ko): Galmpton (H) Friday 11th, Torridge (A) Saturday 19th, Alphington (H) Tuesday 22nd. (Axminster are without a fixture on Sat, August 26th having requested a free date for a wedding).

Honiton Town (evening games 6.30pm ko): Crediton Utd (A) Tuesday 15th, Liverton Utd (A) Saturday 19th, Budleigh Salterton (H) Tuesday 22nd, Brixham AFC (A) Saturday, 26th, Sidmouth Town (H) Tuesday 29th.

▼ Meanwhile, in the Devon & Exeter League, Chard Town Reserves are set to return having folded for a season.

The Robins, who appear likely to be handed a place in Division One, finished in the Premier Division relegation places in their last appearance back in 2015-16.

The man appointed to lead the team on their return is the experienced Ivor Hutchings who was assistant to Phil Loaring at Combe St Nicholas last season, but has now cut his ties with 'The Saints' after an association as player, manager and chairman stretching back some 44 years.

FOOTBALL Devon & Exeter League

Devon and Exeter League changes include 13 teams being promoted two divisions

THE Macron Devon & Exeter League has dropped one of their divisions for the coming season despite a net increase of ten teams.

At Friday's Annual General Meeting the clubs voted overwhelmingly to increase numbers and hopefully avoid last seasons dilemma which left several divisions short.

However the league have made some eye-watering changes with 13 clubs promoted two divisions.

The most prominent was Perry Street who have been slotted into Division One after winning Division Three in their first ever season in the D & E.

Premier champions Honiton Town have moved up to the South West Peninsular League, but the D&E welcomed back Exwick Villa to take their place.

Chard Town Res, Teignmouth Town Res, Black Swan Town, Exeter United, Spreyton and a Willand XI have joined the League, and there are eight reserve teams added; but sadly Feniton 3rds, Stoke Hill, Willand Res and Woodbury Res have all withdrawn.

Uppottery were presented with the Bill Rees memorial shield in their first ever season in Premier. The award is for the best sporting team in Premier according to the referees and Uppottery came top with an average 87.16 out of 100. Newton St Cyres and Clyst Valley were second and third respectively.

The league also announced that as they are joining the full-time Whole Game System so clubs will not be able to sign-on players until at least mid July. The change will mean there will be no more match result sheets to complete, but clubs will have to document their details on the WGS.

Texas Scramble won with 61.5 score

with John Pawley

THE mixed group held a Texas Scramble with the winners being Vicki and Barry Rogers with Jo and Larry Goodliffe, with a wonderful score of 61.5.

The runners-up were Andrea and Stan Squire with Jan and Keith Portlock with 66.1

Wonderful weather continued to bless the ladies competitions and last week's was no exception.

The Warren Crocus Stableford qualifier and the Bowerman Cup individual Stableford were the competitions last week, and with the course looking its best some good scores were posted.

Heather Clarke with 37 points won the Silver division and the Bowerman Cup.

Olwen Eaton with 35 was next followed by Henrietta Bradshaw with 34.

Bronze One winner was Jo Goodliffe with 36 points, followed by Sharon Rouse 35 and Lesley Farley 34, on countback.

Bronze Two winner was Sheila Palmer with 29 points with Pam Knibb next on 27.

The nine hole winner was Catherine Hunt with 18 points, ahead of Linda Northover 16.

The Warren Crocus finals will be held at Dawlish in September, so Heather Clarke and Olwen Eaton will represent the club in silver division and Lesley Farley and Diana Gee in bronze division.

The seniors are well into the summer season, with friendly matches and knock-out competitions to keep everyone happy.

On Wednesday the course at Budleigh was in wonderful condition for the Seniors match in the afternoon.

The good company and course did not extend entirely to the match result, as Honiton lost 4 - 2, but that in itself was a good and fair outcome. The return leg in Aug is now to be looked forward to by all.

On Friday, in continuing sunny weather the Honiton course was presented in as equally good condition, for the Seniors 3BBB, with two to score.

Around 60 players took part with the three man team of Alan Pollock, Bob Cockett and Tony Proudfoot amassing 78 points to win.

Second were Stan Squire, David Scott and Keith Portlock with 76 points, and third Mike Sennitt, Vic Wood and Bill Eaton with 73 points.

The fourth place was taken by Christ Street, John Fleetwood and George Smith with 72 points.

Twos were scored by David Scott, John Frith, David Rogers, Mike Kent and Dave Anderson at the 2nd, with Tom Stanton achieving the same at the 4th and Dave Maggs on the 12th.

Mike Ward went one better - getting a two at the 2nd AND 10th.

CRICKET ST THOMAS

with Bert Robinson

ON A warm Monday morning, 42 members of the Senior Section attended a three man all to score stableford competition.

The prevailing conditions suited the golfers as no less than seven teams returned scores in excess of 90.

In a very close competition, only one point separated the first three places.

John Wallace led his team in with 99 points which was one better than both Geoff Dean's team and that of John Sweet.

RESULTS: 1st, John Wallace; Mike Hone & Keith Branchflower, 99 points

2nd, Geoff Dean; Bert Robinson & Stuart Pope, 98 points

3rd, John Sweet; Martin England & Trevor Dobson, 98 points

Meanwhile, ten members of the Seniors match team travelled to Lyme Regis in the Knight Heath Trophy, where they met a formidable side.

Facing a team with an average handicap of eight, the portends were not great, and the Saints eventually succumbed by 7 1/2 - 2 1/2.

Well done to Alan Chance and Frank Martin who managed to win their games.

RESULTS: Roger Stone lost to Mudford by 5 & 3; Bob Barrow lost to Clegg by 5 & 5; Frank Martin beat Gibson by 4 & 2; Barrie Heath lost to Taylor by 7 & 5; Martin Bargery halved with Turner; John Wandless lost to Lewis by 1 hole; Alan Chance beat Skellerman by 1 hole; George Wallace lost to Moss by 1 hole; Richard Forster lost to Lines by 2 & 1; James Siabi lost to Wilson by 2 holes.

On Wednesday, 30 seniors entered the three man Yellow Ball competition.

The golfers found the windy conditions to their disadvantage as eight of the ten teams failed to return the critical ball.

Thus the scoring was depleted with no team managing 100 points.

Brian Marsh's trio were pleased to be one team that did, and the five point bonus earned them first place by default.

There was a tie for second place with Des Denning's team just edging out John Pearce's team to take second spot.

RESULTS: 1st, Brian Marsh; Ian Griffiths & Gordon Bareham, 97 points; 2nd, Des Denning; Keith Potter &

Paul England, 94 points; 3rd, John Pearce; Bert Robinson & Richard Hall, 94 points.

The Saints' Senior match team travelled to Minehead to play a friendly match.

After losing the first game by a slim margin, the Saints won the next three to take a comfortable lead, but they could only secure another half from the remaining games, and had to settle for a 3 1/2 - 3 1/2 draw which was a creditable result away from home on a links course.

Wins were recorded by Dave Muggeridge and John McOmish, Frank Martin & Barrie Singleton, and Barrie Heath & Nick Clarke.

The Seniors finished their week on Friday with an individual Medalford competition.

Forty-four players entered with the format being nine holes medal play from which nine holes stableford play is deducted. Thus the lowest score is the winner. The scores varied between 14 and 37.

In Division One, Trevor Dobson won with the equivalent of three under par 15 points whereas Clive Fisk won Division Two with 14 points.

RESULTS: Division One - 1st, Trevor Dobson (15), 2nd, George Wallace (17), 3rd, Frank Martin (18); Division Two - 1st, Clive Fisk (14), 2nd, Brian Hodder (15), 3rd, Ray Gudge (16)

THE Men's Section played their Hazelwood (Division One) and Dart (Division Two) trophies on June 11th as Medal format.

The winner of the Hazelwood Trophy was Paul Clode with a nett 71. In second place was Stuart Mackie with a nett 72.

The Dart Trophy was won by Ian Burraston with an excellent nett 67, and in second place was Steve Baker with a nett 71.

There were five 2s scored by Mike Wickins x 2, Simon Sweetland, Craig Trivett, and Alan Kenworthy.

This week the Ladies' Section played the re-arranged Centenary Niblick Cup simultaneously with the County Prize, both Stableford competitions.

Although warm and sunny, the wind was still proving to be challenging.

A very close competition resulted in Helen Gaudie losing out on countback to Helen Kenworthy who both scored 32 points, just ahead of Glenda Board with 31 points.

The Seniors Section completed their Masters competition Friday morning with the fourth and final round of 18 holes.

Friday's winner was Mike Swann who, despite a score of ten strokes on the 12th hole, still managed to come in with an excellent nett score of 69.

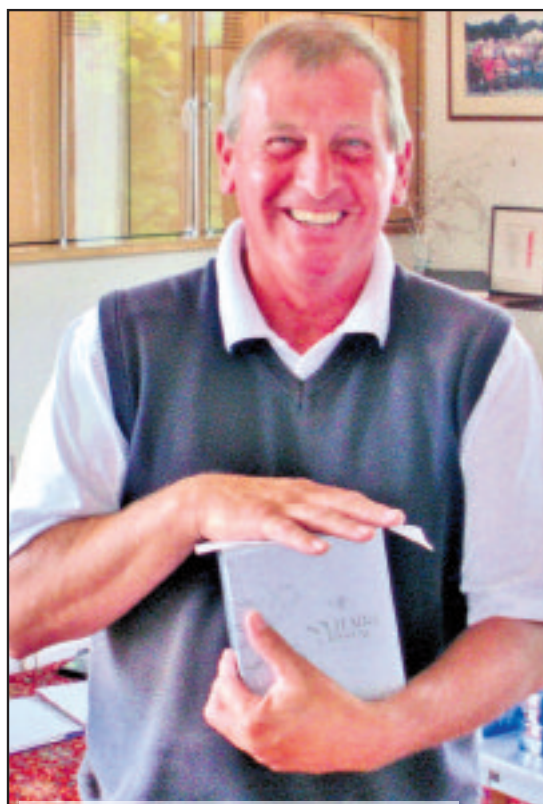

Close behind him were Adrian Bishop and Gerry Turner both with a nett score of 70 each.

Two 2s were recorded; one by Geoff Hughes and one by Brian Thompson.

The overall Masters aggregate scores reveal a clear winner with Adrian Bishop who put together four rounds of serious golf scoring a nett total of 279. In second place was Bob Graham with a nett total of 290.

In third place was Brian Thompson with a nett total of 293 and, in fourth place was Tony Strong with a nett total of 301.

Congratulations to our 2017 Masters Champion Adrian who may possibly find an adjustment in the next Handicap Listing.
